

Trauma-Informed Approach Training

PCHS IS CONDUCTING A FREE TRAUMA-INFORMED APPROACH TRAINING!

Training Overview

This interactive virtual training is designed to help settlement staff develop a deeper understanding of trauma and its effects on individuals, families, and communities. Participants will explore how experiences of trauma, whether from pre-migration stress, displacement, or the challenges of resettlement, can influence newcomers' well-being, engagement, and access to services.

Learning Outcomes

Through this session, participants will learn the core principles of a trauma-informed approach and how to apply them in their daily interactions and organizational practices. The training aims to strengthen the capacity of settlement professionals to create safe, inclusive, and supportive environments that foster healing and resilience among newcomers.
